

Congratulations on your recent investment in generative AI! Now that you've made the leap, you're ready to take on a new challenge: adoption.

Join Promevo for a multi-step Gemini for Google Workspace Deployment Workshop, where our Google-certified team will work hand-in-hand with stakeholders and end users to develop a comprehensive AI deployment plan and set your organization up for success. From configuration and integration to training and messaging, we'll make sure you get the maximum value from this powerful tool.

What You Get With Promevo

Our Gemini for Google Workspace Deployment Workshop is designed to give your organization the technical and professional support you need to successfully adopt AI.

Phase 1: Planning & Preparation

We collaborate with your key stakeholders to define a deployment plan, develop a communication plan, and curate training materials.

Phase 3: User Adoption & Support

Our team provides interactive training, internal messaging, and a library of support resources to promote user engagement with Gemini.

Phase 2: Configuration & Integration

Our team configures your security and access controls and conduct thorough testing to ensure seamless integration of Gemini with your Workspace apps.

Phase 4: Measurement & Optimization

We gather feedback, monitor user activity, and refine support resources to identify potential areas of improvement and optimize user experience.
